

United Way of Laramie County is hiring a Public Relations AmeriCorps VISTA! Apply Today!

United Way of Laramie County's Public Relations AmeriCorps VISTA will be instrumental in assisting our transition to a collective impact model, which is proven in several communities and focused on creating lasting social change. For 70 years, United Way has responsibly mobilized and leveraged community resources to create stable and long-term changes that produce healthy, educated and financially sound individuals and families in Laramie County. Join our team!

Benefits: Living allowance, education award, childcare assistance, health coverage, connections to community leaders, opportunity to give back and strengthen your community

Skills: Strong communicator, writer, relationship builder, reliable and organized

How to Apply: Send resume, brief motivational statement, and two references to director@unitedwayoflaramiecounty.org. Position open until filled.