FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

APRIL 6, 2015

[Cheyenne, WY] United Way of Laramie County is pleased to announce two local families as the 2015 Campaign Co-Chairs. Brittany and Matt Ashby are continuing in their second year as campaign co-chairs. This year their daughters Alana (9) and Aubrey (7) will be joining them on the campaign team.

Brittany is a Principal Consultant for Align. She has a passion for helping organizations be more successful whether through planning or more efficient and effective operations. Matt serves as the Planning Services Director for the City of Cheyenne. He has worked in all aspects of planning for the city and enjoys the challenges our growing community provides on a daily basis. Alana and Aubrey attend Anderson elementary.

The Bolkovatz family will serve as campaign co-chairs for the 2015/2016 campaigns. Rich, Michele and their 18 year-old daughters, Mariah and Mikala, value family and the quality of life and community spirit Cheyenne is known for.

Michele is the Community Relations Manager at Warren Federal Credit Union. Rich is Vice President and Chief Operation Officer at Reiman Corp. Mariah and Mikala are seniors at Cheyenne Central High school and plan to attend Laramie County Community College in the fall of 2015.

Campaign co-chairs are the voices and faces of United Way of Laramie County throughout the campaign. As volunteers they represent United Way at community events, campaign presentations and assist in developing business and individual relationships.
